Fortunately, there is no prospect that the United Europe. If Mr. Roosevelt decides to run again and if he is elected and if that also happens to cheer up the Europeans who trust in him, that will be fine and dandy. But it will not be done for that reason.

Miss Thompson accompanies her suggestion with another which has real merit. She thinks Wendell I. To the extent that the growing war emergency States, the existing government should be strengthened. It contains at present and has contained since 1933 an over-supply of mediocrity. The President's inspirational qualities have been hamstrung time and again by inept administration.

The United States shouldn't have to wait till next November to pull itself together. Mr. Willkie is one of many men who could strengthen it now-who would be willing to strengthen it if given assurance they wouldn't be vic imized by repetition of the penny ante antics that have been the most prominent political characteristic of the New Deal.

THE STORY BEHIND THE STORY

How can the Germans do it? Why can't they be stopped? Why can't the Allies do as well?

The story behind the story is told in figures. It isn't superior courage, skill or even the German army's excellent direction which makes the war so far look like a pushover, but equipment

Foreign Policy association and other authorities quoted in The World Almanac estimate that Germany spent $ .500,000,000 in 1939 to prepare itself for 1940. The rive started in 1935, when it spent $2,600,000,000. in 1936 it spent a billion more than that. In each of the next two years it hoisted its armament spending $400,000,000, until in 1939 it spent 22 percent of the world's national defense total.

Great Britain, meanwhile, did not expand its de fense budget till 1937, spending less than a third of Germany's total even then. The same ratio was continued in 1938. In 1939, the British spent $1,817,000,-000 to Germany's $4,500,000,000. France armed even more slowly. Its defense budget actually decreased in 1938 to $731,000,000, the lowest point since 1935. and in 1939, with war a virtual certainty was raised

War used to be a problem of getting there "fust with the mostest men." It's a problem now of getting there "fust with the mostest equipment manned by Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Litty of Ohio ave. the best men." Figures for national defense expenditures tell the story. For four years before war started Germany was getting ready for it approxima'ely twice as fast as Great Britain and France together.

LACKING ONLY TELEVISION

News reporting of the war is almost too good. Many Americans, nerves set on edge by the bomold way had its unappreciated advantages.

on a program which included a recommendation for a 50.000-plane air force. Such a sky armada would surpass the reported strength of any foreign belligerent.

The contemplated short cut was 10 to incorporate virtually all the 3214 President's emergency plans in the 41 regular army and navy bills now pending for the year beginning July 1. This would obviate the need for protracted committee hearings and would expedite a vote in both houses.

To add to the regular army and pavy funds totaling $1 971,000,000, Mr. Roocevelt asked $732,000,000 for the army and $250,000,000 for the pavy. Besides this, he requested $200,000,000 to be placed at his dis-1214 cretion for use, if necessary, in event of emergencies affecting the national security and for contract obligations related to defense needs. As lawmakers took stock of the geared-up defense program, they found it as intricate as the mechanism of one of the fleet units it

> Largest Peacetime Budget One thing quickly became apparent—the defense boost was likely to give the country the largest peacetime budget in its history. Approval of the extraordinary appropriations, added to the regular government expenditures already in sight, would send the outlay for the next fiscal year to about $10 .-030,000 000-or a billion more than the year just ending. Almost one-

ing. Mr. Roosevelt made no suggestions on the score.

Informed congressional sources indicated that increased borrowing, ition of the treasury May 15: rather than new taxes, would be Receipts $8,207,743.88; expendition of the treasury May 15: rather than new taxes, would be foreshadow a raise in the $45,000,-$2,206,677,497.61; working balance ooo,000 public debt limit, now alincluded $1.481,025,866.04; receipts most reached, but the sources said for fiscal year (July 1) $5.012,934,— that action probably would not be 640.53; expenditures $8.296.622,963.— necessary at this session.

Although wheat prices were as 688,322 88; gross debt $42,760,397, agreement with the President's asmuch as two cents lower at one 636.67; increase over previous day sertion that the transcendent thing

SOMETHING SPECIAL—READ THIS!

We are now in shape to offer you a building site which is located on the Youngs'own Road, a short distance from what is known as the Brooks' Farms and we can price this to you at $7.00 a front foot. It will be restricted for building in this The tract will have a frontage of 100 feet and a depth of 250 feet and will cost $700. Whoever buys, must build 100 feet from the center of the road and also must build in the center of the tract; the cost of the dwelling erected must not be less than $6,000. Now this should appeal to anyone who wants to build a new home for the reason a cheap, shacky house will not be built in line. Now if you are interested, see me at once as this will not last.

Intensified War Abroad Is Expected To Bring Orders Here

(By International News Service)
PITTSBURCH—With the second World war suddenly pushing its boundaries into the Scandinavian countries, steel looked forward to the long-waited foreign orders which will send the industry roaring toward new heights

It has not been forgotten by Pittsburgh steel men that during the last World war more than 30 per cent of the country's munitions were to make a definite statement on the new turn of events in Europe, it has been pointed out more than once in the past that "increased war activity abroad means increased activity in the nation's steel mills."

Coupled with this, came news from Washington that foreign agents have quietly speeded their buying activities, particularly in airplanes and airplane engines. Working on the principle that it's "first come, first served," these Europeth representatives, with millions of dollars to back them up, are doing their best to see to it that their particular country is not found lacking.

Through most of March and the first half of April the industry as a whole ran at a little over 60 per cent of capacity—a sharp contrast to the days last December when the operating rate reached a new righ of 94.5 per cent.

At the same time, the rate this year has been eight to 10 per cent. greater than for the same period of 1939. At present there is a back-log in but a "few products." The rate of operations today seems to be nore closely geared to the incoming business.

Although none of the operators would admit "pointing toward the war business," there was genera! agreement that their mills "are in a position for a quick upswing," should the necessity of a quick increase in the operating rate be forced upon them.

Spokesman pointed out that this "quick upswing" might come "either from export business or an in-creased domest'o demand resulting from war-inspired orders."

"Perhaps the most important thing of all," says Demaret, "is that we learn to play or seed.

HALF MILE RELAY: Canton McKinley (Moldovan, Riehl, Garrison, Goins) 1939. Time 1 min. 33 that we learn to play on very thin grass, compared to the fairways over the rest of the country. We have to learn to play shots all sorts of ways, whereas these boys up here are used to deep grass and up here are used to deep grass and they learn only one shot. And then, of course, we play the year around."

Unfortunately for this story, the Texas contingent failed to burn up the opening round of the Goodall tournament yesterday. Demaret, himself, got away to a 2-minus start, signifying that he was two down to his two first-round opponents at the close of the day.

Tied for the leadership, with six rounds of match play to go for the first prize of $1,500, were Jimmy Thompson and Gene Sarazen. Sarazen shot a great 70 yesterday, including a record-breaking 31 on NEW YORK, May 17-Tex Carle- the back nine.
